In the disclosure of personal data to other parties, the Company shall proceed only for the purposes specified or other purposes permitted by law. The Company shall supervise that the data so disclosed is kept confidential and used for the stated purposes only. In the event that consent is required by law, the Company shall ask for consent first.

3. Processing of Personal Data by Personal Processors

The Company may assign a person or entity (personal data processor) to process personal data on its behalf of or in the name of the Company. In entrusting the processing of personal data as a personal data processor or so acting as a processor of personal data under various contracts, the Company shall have in place an agreement specifying its duties as a personal data controller and those of the personal data processor. The personal data processor is obliged to process personal data only in accordance with the instructions of the Company and must also comply with the Personal Data Protection Act B.E. 2562 in respect to the duties of the personal data processor.

4. Request for Consent to Process Personal Data

4.1 Where the law requires that consent must first be obtained before processing personal data, the Company shall expressly request for consent before processing personal data.

4.2 In the case of personal data of a minor, an incompetent person or a quasi-incompetent person, the Company shall proceed as required by law in relation to the processing of personal data of a minor, an incompetent person or a quasi-incompetent person, which includes seeking consent from those who have the authority to act on their behalf as prescribed by law.

4.3 In the event that consent is not required, the Company shall proceed according to the legal bases prescribed by law, which are as follows:

4.3.1 Legal bases in the case that the personal data is not sensitive data.

- It is necessary for the performance of a contract to which you are a party or in order to take steps at your request prior to entering into such contract.
- It is necessary for the legitimate interests of the Company or any other persons or juristic persons.
- To prevent or suppress danger to a person's life, body or health.
- To be in compliance with prescribed laws.
- To achieve purposes associated with the public interest or for purposes relating to research or statistics.

4.3.2 In the case that the personal data is sensitive data.

- To prevent or suppress danger to the life, body or health where consent cannot be given for any reason whatsoever.
- It is information that is disclosed to the public with explicit consent.
- It is necessary for the purpose of establishment, compliance or exercise of legal claims or defense of legal claims.
- It is necessary for compliance with a law to achieve the purposes with respect to matters stipulated by law.

4.4 In the event that the Company processes personal data for legal compliance or for the performance of a contract or to use in the processing of your request to enter into a contract, in which the Company requires to process personal data in order to achieve such purposes, failure to provide personal data to the Company for such purposes may have legal consequences or the Company may not be able to perform transactions or provide services according to the contract or may not be able to enter into the contract (as the case may be). In such event, it may be necessary for the Company to cancel the transaction or the provision of related services, whether in whole or in part, or refuse to enter into a contract.
